RULES AND PAYMENT GUIDELINES FOR COURSES
AGREEMENT FORM

In order to maintain the spiritual atmosphere of the Ashram, students and guests are required to follow the Rules as outlined below.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- No smoking, no alcohol, no drugs, and no non-vegetarian food (including eggs) allowed. No consumption of black tea or coffee.
- Silence to be observed from 10.30pm until after Satsang the following morning.
- As is the tradition in all ashrams, each building is treated as a temple. Shoes are to be left outside or in the entry halls of all buildings.
- Please respect the temples and shrines. You are welcome to visit the Krishna Temple, Master's Statue and the Temple on the pond, but they are to be used only as places for contemplation or meditation. No food or drink in any temple area.
- Modest dress is required. Shoulders and legs to be covered for Satsang and in temple areas.
- No candles, incense or fire of any kind in the rooms or anywhere on Ashram premises.
- Rooms and tents to be kept clean.
- Swimming pool to be used only when a life guard is on duty.
- No loud music or music inappropriate to the spiritual atmosphere of the Ashram (rock music etc). Please respect others' need for quiet and silence.
- No cell phones allowed.
- Attendance at all classes, meditation sessions and yoga classes during a course is mandatory. By failing to attend, you may be asked to leave the course.
